

The Notley Review 2020

Well, as you've guessed, not a lot to report for 2020 ... which must go down as one of the most disappointing years on record. So, instead of listing all of the things that should have happened, let's instead look forward, with some optimism, to a better year to come.

We hope that you've made it this far with your health and sanity intact; that you will be able to celebrate Christmas with your nearest and dearest; and that maybe, just maybe, 2021 will be a little kinder.

Assuming Adam will be able to travel down from the Midlands, it will be just the four of us for Christmas, though I dare say a Zoom call or two will allow us to connect with our far-flung family.

With this year's review struggling to fill a single side of A4, please find your Christmas present overleaf. ;-) Wishing you a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

And finally, a plug for Mark's Advent Calendar (raising money for the Evelina London Children's Hospital) ... enjoy: <https://tinyurl.com/santalorian>

With love,
Richard, Laura,
Adam & Mark
